THE OTHER MRS. JOHNSON.

From London Society.
[CONCLUDED]

He came down stairs. The grates which should have been glowing with a Christmas blaze, were cold and black. The bottle and the bag of eggs standing where he had left them overnight seemed to reproach him with what Christmas Eve should have been. And what is this hideous compound that he finds in a basin covered with a cloth? A chaotic mass of an unwholesome-looking yellowish drab mixture; something that might be taken for some new-invented mortar, but for those darker colored spots pervading it, which Johnson on investigation finds out to be raisins! Spirit of Christmas! is it possible?—That unsightly mass turns out to be the uncooked pudding! The Christmas pudding! The magnum opus of the twelve months' cookery! The delicious sphere about which cluster metaphorically all the year's loving domesticity, and prosaically all the toothsome anticipations of a good Christmas dinner. The Christmas pudding! so splendid in its appearance in due course upon the table! How loathsome does it look in uncooked dishabille!

Under existing circumstances we need hardly say that Johnson did not care to boil that pudding. Still, however depressed and overwhelmed the mind, man must have food. So Johnson, having, after a good hour spent in trying to light a fire, and another hour in watching for the kettle's boiling, made himself a cup of wretchedly bad tea, took his solitary breakfast—after a fashion; washed up his single cup and saucer, and then sat down to think how he should spend the day—his Christmas day!

There are some problems which resolve themselves; and it is quite possible to debate in our own mind how time should be disposed of, until we find the question answered for us and the time already spent. So it was nearly noon, and Johnson had not made up his mind what he should do upon his lonely Christmas Day, when he was startled by a cab drawing up to his door, and still more startled on seeing emerge from that cab a buxom, smiling, kindly-looking personage in whom he at once recognized Mrs. Johnson's mother. He was by no means so much startled after this, when, having rushed to the door and admitted his good mother-in-law, another figure, that of his run-away-wife, followed, with baby in her arms.

Mrs. Johnson seemed scarcely to dare look at her husband, as she followed her mother into the best parlor.

The old lady seated herself in a chair as though determined to make herself at home, and then, regardless of Johnson's presence, proceeded to take off her bonnet, this done, she raised the skirt of her dress and produced, from some mysterious hiding-place or other, a cap of such wondrously elaborate structure that how it could have survived the railway journey without so much as being crushed appeared a downright mystery. She adjusted her cap before the chimney-glass and then sat down again, prepared for anything.

"And now then," said the old lady, looking across to where Johnson stood regarding her and his wife by turns with an odd, puzzled look. "Now then, let us have it out. This silly girl of mine came home last night with an absurd story I scarce know what—of your having some other lady love concealed in the unknown regions of the city."

"I!" exclaimed Johnson in astonishment.

"Don't interrupt me," continued the old lady. "I said to the stupid child, 'Mary Jane, my dear, I don't believe it.' But, right or wrong, I will take you back and see about it. To-morrow, my dear, is Christmas day, when no wife should, under any circumstances, be away from her husband's home.' In fact," the old lady added by way of parenthesis, "if I were not myself a widow I would not have come with her, even on this occasion. So we packed ourselves off by the first train this morning, and here we are."

"Why, Mary Jane," cried Johnson, as soon as the old lady allowed him a chance of getting in a word. "What have you been dreaming about? A lady love in the city!"

Then Mrs. Johnson told him all. Her disobeying his commands, her calling at his office; and her interview with the gorgeous female. All, precisely as we have already told the reader.

"Eh! then by Jove!" cried Johnson, smiling in spite of himself, "you've been to the office of old Johnson, the bill discounter, on the second floor. A pretty sort of a Christmas he'll spend to-day! His wife's as jealous as a hippotamus, and goes there daily to witness his interviews with his female clients."

"What?" exclaimed Mrs. Johnson, much relieved. "It was then not your office that I went to. Yet stay," she added, "they distinctly told me there was not another Johnson on the premises."

"Nor is there," replied her husband, "and in this fact lies all with which I feel I have to reproach myself. While in that building I am no Johnson. Bear me, Mary Jane, and pardon my silly pride. When I met my recent pecuniary reverses, and had to put up with a very much inferior position, I did not like that my name which had previously stood so well in the city should be degraded, so I——"

"Don't say you took another name," interrupted his wife. "It sounds so like as a swindler. Don't say you took another name."

"I did not," answered Johnson, "but instead, I dispensed with a portion of that which was mine by right, and the individual who was formerly known as Hamilton Johnson, Esq., became, when forced to accept the situation of clerk and messenger at a poor thirty shilling salary, plain Mr. Johnson. So, my dear girl, believe me when I tell you that the one sole reason of my opposing your calling at my office in the city, was that I had no office of my own for you to call at."

Mrs. Johnson threw herself into her husband's arms. We will not attempt to enter into details of what she said to him—this husband of hers, who, while she thought he had been deceiving her, had only planned, and schemed, and plotted to save her from anxiety or worry, and what she thought of him, how proud she was of him, or of how she implored forgiveness for her doubts.

But how did it happen, possibly the reader may inquire, that Mrs. Johnson had not found out the office of the company in whose service Johnson held this subordinate position?

Good reader, please remember Christmas is not only a great home festival, but it is one of the legal quarter days. The great Sugar Cane and Molasses Company (Limited) not finding their shares go off with the rapidity that had been anticipated, had given up the expensive offices they had hitherto occupied. This company's name it was that had been obliterated by the smudge of white-brown paint that Mrs. Johnson had observed the previous day on the first floor of No. 56.

And now, once more, a cab draws up at Johnson's door, and again therefrom alights a female. Mr. Johnson, peeping over the blind, is utterly bewildered as she recognizes in the new arrival—

The other Mrs. Johnson!

(The foxy-looking clerk had executed his commission thoroughly, and had dogged his steps of one Mrs. Johnson to her home.)

She went herself to the door to admit the other Mrs. Johnson.

"So, madam," said the gorgeous one, "I am glad to see you in your own home. I confess I was somewhat curious to learn where and what your home might be. And after the very affectionate interest you expressed yesterday in my husband, common civility demanded that I should return your call. I am here, as you perceive."

"Madam," said Johnson, interposing, "through a strange series of mistakes, my wife yesterday called at your husband's office, believing it to be mine. I hope you will forgive her."

The appearance of the scene of a Johnson, who was not Mr. Johnson, somewhat staggered the preconceived opinions of the gorgeous one. She instituted all sorts of inquiries into the minutest details of the circumstances which had led to the error; and being at length thoroughly convinced that her jealousy, at any rate in this quarter, was as groundless as it was ridiculous, it became her turn now to ask forgiveness.

She was assured that she was thoroughly forgiven—that no one held her answerable for the circumstance that had occurred.

But would the lady she had so wrongfully suspected do her the great favor of accompanying her home? She had had a terrible scene that morning with her husband; and though she had no right to ask such a boon, might she hope that the lady would come with her and be witness of her penitence? Nay, if she might, after her conduct yesterday, suggest such a thing, dared she hope Mr. Johnson, too, and the lady to whom she had not the honor of an introduction, would dine with them that day?

The lady to whom the gorgeous one had not been introduced, and who we need not say was our Mrs. Johnson's mother, declared it to be her conviction that as the absurd conduct of the other Mrs. Johnson had been the cause of their having no Christmas dinner there, the very best thing they could do was to accept the invitation. (Our Mrs. Johnson's mamma had always been noted for shrewd common sense.)

So after considerable discussion it was decided that the whole party should proceed to dine at the house of old Johnson, the bill-discounter.

The party was duly introduced by the mistress of the house; and all the perplexing circumstances of the day before having been thoroughly explained, the two Johnsons and their two wives spent a regularly merry Christmas.

Old Johnson, the bill-discounter, indeed, spite of his reputation as a hard, grasping man in business, turned out to be a trump in his own house. Hearing of the humble position his newly-made acquaintance was compelled to occupy down in the city, he declared his intention of employing his own influence to get him a considerably better engagement in another quarter.

The bill-discounting Johnson was as good as his word, and both found reason to bless the day they had been brought together. The sweet simple domesticity of the good little woman whom we have from the first claimed as "ours," had a magical influence in banishing the ridiculous doubts and jealousies of her friend, and altogether in bringing to a more healthy, rational frame of mind "the other Mrs. Johnson."

Secretary Seward's Retirement from Official Life.

The following letter, addressed by Secretary Seward to the President of the Albany Burgesses Corps, declining to receive them in an official capacity, contains the announcement that he will retire from public service on the 31 of March next:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19th, 1869.

N. H. H Parsons, East Albany, N. Y.

MY DEAR SIR. I have received your note of the 16th inst., in which you inform me that the Albany Burgesses Corps propose to pay me a complimentary visit on the 31 of March next, and request me to appoint an hour for their reception. I am expecting to retire from public service on the day which is thus indicated. It is my purpose to seek and enjoy thereafter so much of rest and freedom from political studies and labors as is compatible with the responsibilities which I share in common with all my fellow citizens. The Burgesses Corps will readily see that, under these circumstances, I could not without inconsistency receive such a public reception as they propose. Nevertheless I cherish for all its members the same sincere respect and cordial attention that have existed between them and myself through so many eventful years. I shall necessarily be in my official place during the business hour on the 31 of March, but it will give me pleasure to receive any of the members of the corps, not collectively and formally, but individually and informally, if it shall suit their convenience to call upon me at the Department of State.

Very truly yours
WILLIAM H. SEWARD

Physiognomy.

The science of physiognomy, says an exchange, is not a new thing. Aristotle anticipated it to quite an extent. Some of his observations in regard to it, which are curious, if not especially valuable, may be thus summarized. A thick neck indicates a strong character. A well sized neck, not too thick, shows highmindedness; a long, slender neck, cowardice; a very short one, cunning. The animal types these follow are respectively the lion, the stag and the wolf. Thin lips, loose at the ends, and the upper one lapping, also shows highmindedness; and this belongs to the leonine type and to that of high spirited dogs. Thick lips, the upper projecting, shows folly, and belong to the type of the ass and the monkey. People with projecting upper lips and prominent gums are apt to be abusive. A nose with thick extremity shows indolence—the bovine type. An aquiline nose, well cleared from the forehead shows highmindedness. The same is affordeu by a round nose flattened at the end. A nose turning up rapidly from the forehead shows indolence. Nostrils wide and open, show a passionate character.

Fleshy faces show indolence and cowardice, little faces, diligence and small mindedness; large faces, slowness and stupidity. If there are baggy formations about the eyes, the subject is full of drink. Little eyes are a sign of a little mind; great or prominent eyes, are stupidity; concave eyes of mischievous disposition. As to their color, very black eyes shows cowardice, as also gray and pale colored eyes; those of the blonde type, and bright gleaming eyes, a sensual character. The forehead, if little shows aptitude to learning, if very large, stupidity, if round, insensibility, if symmetrical, high mindedness; if heavy and projecting, self will.

A large head shows insensibility, and a little head, lively perception, a peak head, imprudence. Little ears belong to the monkey tribe, and great ears to the donkey. Even the best of dogs have moderate sized ears. As to complexion, very dark persons are cowardly; the red, cunning; the sanguine, a passionate character; the color resembling honey, coldness of disposition. Eye-brows drawn down toward the nose, and up toward the forehead, indicate stillness, hair raising straight from the head, cowardice, so, too, does crisp hair. Prominence of the forehead, near the head, generosity; hair growing on the forehead, near the nose, shows meanness. Look at yourself by "these lamps" and see what you are.

Near Marshall, Texas, some days ago, a young man named Tone Crain accompanied a negro funeral procession to the grave and joined in singing a hymn, at the close of which, and without notice of any kind, he shot a negro boy through the head killing him instantly. He then shot and wounded a negro man and rode off. Shortly after a negro man skipped up behind him and shot him in the back. Crain again mounted his mule and rode away, but, after going a short distance, dismounted and laid down. A party of negroes collected and shot him dead. Crain is supposed to have been insane. Two white men and four negroes are under arrest, and the affair will be rigidly investigated.

A vigorous youth of Cincinnati, about nine o'clock on Friday evening, while returning to the city, his thoughts dwelling on the danger from highwaymen, suddenly grasped his revolver as an object moved into the road ahead of his horse. Thinking it could be none other than a bloodthirsty highwayman, he drew his repeater and discharged his six balls at the rear of a peaceful cow, having done which he whipped his steed to a gallop and arrived safely at home. He still survives; ditto the cow.

Edgar T. Morse, a school teacher near Canterbury, Ct., three weeks ago received a letter warning him out of town on danger of his life, and subsequently has been twice assaulted; the last time he was struck on the head and chest, the latter blow causing some hemorrhage. His assailant is unknown.

An Irishman in writing a letter to his sweetheart, asking whether she would accept of his love or not, writes thus: "If you don't love me, plase send back the letter without breaking the seal."

A lady who did not know whether her plantation was in Virginia or North Carolina, found, when the line was run, that she was a resident of Virginia. "Well," said she, "I am glad I do not live in North Carolina; it was always such a sickly State."

Gen. Grant's Cabinet

Military Affairs

The House Committee of Military Affairs to day made a report on the organization and pay of the army. They recommend the creation of a supply department out of the Quartermaster's subsistence and pay departments, the consideration of the ordinance and artillery corps and of the Engineer, or Signal Corps, and think the Engineers can do the work of the coast survey. They also recommend the substitution of the annual salaries for commutation and allowances that make up the pay of army officers, and condemn the present system of brevet rank, and urge its abolition, coupled with legislation, giving the President power to confer brevets for distinguished service in the field.

Bishop Whitehouse vs. Bishop Cummins

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.

The full correspondence between Bishop Whitehouse, of Illinois, and Assistant Bishop Cummins, of Kentucky, is published this evening. The former wrote twice to the latter to dissuade him from visiting Chicago to speak for certain societies, one of which Whitehouse termed schismatical and designed to disturb his diocese; while to speak the other, American Church Missionary Society, would raise serious questions. Cummins replied that he had accepted the invitation and could not yield to Bishop Whitehouse's dictation. The latter then entered his protest against against the contemplated visit, and sent notice thereof to Bishop Smith, of Kentucky. Cummins again replied that by becoming a Bishop he had not renounced the right to accept an invitation from any rector, and entreated Whitehouse not to raise issue by denying that right. Bishop Cummins preached here morning and evening last Sunday, and thus the matter stands.

PETROLEUM MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE MORNING HERALD,
TITUSVILLE, Feb. 26 1869—8 P. M.

The Petroleum market was weak, irregular, and active to-day. At the commencement of business there was some inquiry at points north of Petroleum Centre at $6.00 and at Pleasantville at $5 80 at the wells. Before noon offers to buy were made at an advance of ten cents, on the above prices, and about noon sales of 750 bbls were made at Pleasantville, at $5.75 at the wells, equivalent to $6.15 at Titusville. During the morning there was very little animation at Petroleum Centre and Rouseville, and intermediate points, and the feeling was unsettled and weak. Early in the afternoon the prices of the morning broke, under a heavy decline in New York, and two three of the dealers unloaded, which caused considerable activity at points north of Petroleum Centre. The greater part of the sales made at Miller and Titusville in the afternoon were at $6.0[illegible], and at six o'clock the price could have been realized for round lots for regular (15 days) delivery. At Pleasantville there was considerable inquiry after six o'clock, at $5 50 at the wells. At points between Petroleum Centre and Oil City, prices were entirely nominal at the close. At Oil City an offer was made and refused for 2,000 bbls, B O until July 1st, 42 gallons at $6.25 on Allegheny Valley cars. The sales aggregated 9,500 bbls, and included 1,000 bbls for Cleveland, 650 for Oil City, 2,500 on speculation, 2,000 for New York, and 4,000 for shipment, but the market to which it is to be shipped was kept secret.

GERMAN BITTERS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

AND

Hoofland's German Tonic.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases

OF THE

LIVER, STOMACH OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, INWARD PILES, FULNESS OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEARTBURN, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FULNESS OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTATIONS, SINKING OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED OR DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN IN A LYING POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT, DULL PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, ETC., SUDDEN FLUSHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—

Hoofland's German Bitters,

AND

Hoofland's German Tonic.

PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.

DEBILITY.

RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE WHATEVER; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, INDUCED BY SEVERE LABOR, HARDSHIPS, EXPOSURE, FEVERS, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system,

Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April, 28, 1866

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually, I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth below Coates Street

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,

Assistant Editor of Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours, truly,
E. D. FENDALL

THE LAST PHASE OF THE BENNINGHOFF CASE.

The Arrest of Ira H. Pierce, Esq., Ex-City Attorney of Titusville, Pa.—His Release and Vindication.

STATEMENTS OF THE COMPLAINANT.

TESTIMONIALS OF THE BAR

It seems we are never to hear the last of the Benninghoff Robbery case, and, we presume most of our readers are tired of any further allusion to the subject. But we have to chronicle another arrest of a prominent and well known individual, for complicity in this transaction, and his subsequent release and vindication

Ira H. Pierce, Esq., who was City Attorney of Titusville in 1866 7 is the last person who seems to have fallen under suspicion It will be recollected that Mr Pierce removed from this place to the West in the winter of 1867 8, previous to the robbery, and a few weeks ago a complaint was lodged against him, a requisition obtained on the Governor of Missouri, and he was brought to Franklin to answer the charge When that stage of the proceedings was reached, there was found to be not a scintilla of evidence against him, and upon the positive declarations of the Benninghoff family that Mr Pierce bore no resemblance to any of the robbers, either in form, feature or otherwise he was promptly, fully, and finally discharged

The Benninghoffs, from the start, seem to have acted upon the most ridiculous suggestions The foolish arrest of one of the most respectable citizens and business men of the oil regions soon after the robbery is not forgotten, the only foundation for suspicion in his case being that a party of gentlemen took a sleigh ride from Titusville on the night of the robbery, that one was a short man another a tall man and a third had bushy whiskers, etc

The indignity of Mr Pierce's arrest seems to have had its origin in the sole fact that he had changed his residence to the West simultaneously with the robbery The truth seems to be that the gorgeous reward offered for the apprehension of the robbers, has put a hundred men on the inquiry the flimsiest circumstances have been magnified, and idl gossip has grown into gross and malicious fabrication and slander

About a year ago Mr D H Cady at that time one of the owners of the Pipe line from Miller Farm to Coerry Run, was arrested charged on information and belief, by young Benninghoff with the robbery, his room, clothes person, and furniture searched, but when the examination took place, an alibi was clearly proved in his case, no evidence was adduced against him the ridiculous prosecution was withdrawn, and Mr Cady, we believe, applied for legal redress to the courts

Mr Pierce, being dragged from his home in the distant West, and subjected to this disgraceful charge, feels likewise aggrieved, and it is highly commendable in the bar of Meadville to come forward for his vindication

The following paper emenates from the legal brethren of Mr Pierce at th County S t

TESTIMONIAL OF THE BAR

The bearer of this, Ira H Pierce and now a citizen of Pleasant Hill, Missouri, having been arrested and brought to this and Venango counties in Pennsylvania charged with being concerned in the robbery of John Benninghoff, of Venango, aforesaid on hearing was discharged and honorably acquitted of the same to the satisfaction not only of his accusers, but of the public We are well acquainted with Mr Pierce He studied law among us some years ago, and was admitted to practice in the several Courts of this county We are satisfied with the opportunities we have had of becoming acquainted, and familiar with his character, that Mr Pierce is entirely innocent of the charge made against him The truth of the matter is that Mr Benninghoff has been mislead in his searches after the criminals Arrests of innocent persons have been made in different parts of the United States —persons of the very best standing in society some of whom have brought suits to recover damages for slander Mr Pierce has also brought his suit for the same purpose Now we, the undersigned and members of the Bar of Meadville Crawford county, Pennsylvania with great pleasure take this method of informing the public that we not only believe him entirely innocent but that there was not, and is not, now the slightest breath of suspicion entertained by us that he was in any way connected with said robbery, and his arrest is denounced as an outrage and condemned by the universal public

I, W F Chalfant, Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford county, Pa do certify that the above signers are members of the Bar of Crawford county aforesaid, in good standing, and that I believe their signatures to be genuine

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court this 25 h day of February, A D 1869

W F CHALFANT, Prothonotary

The Bar of Titusville, of which Mr Pierce was more recently a member, also furnish Mr Pierce with an evidence of their confidence and sympathy, viz

ANOTHER TESTIMONIAL

TITUSVILLE, Pa, Feb 26 1869

The undersigned, members of the Bar of Crawford county, Pa, residing at Titusville in said county, having been personally and professionally acquainted with Ira H Pierce, Esq., during his residence in this city from the month of August, 1866 to the month of December, 1867, cordially extend to him this assurance of our confidence in his perfect and entire innocence of the charge of robbery of John Benninghoff, in the adjoining county of Venango in the month of January, 1868

This crime has enlisted the attention of our entire community from the reckless nature of the charges made against various persons of the highest respectability

No less than four citizens of our town all utterly ignorant of the transaction have been charged with the same offence

Their innocence was in each case triumphantly established, as that of Mr Pierce has been, by the clearest proof of Alibi leaving not a breath of suspicion against him or them

Gordon S Berry,	Guthrie & Ewing,
L W. Wilcox	F L Sealy

The judicial record of Mr Pierce's discharge is also before us, and the following is a correct transcript of the same

JANUARY TERM 1869

Commonwealth, } Criminal Action, vs
Ira Pierce } Charge, Robbery

January 28, 1869. Information of James A McKenzie taken for the purpose of getting a requisition

Same day Warrant issued to H H Herpst, Sheriff

And now, February 23, 1869, Defendant appears, and for want of evidence to convict, Defendant discharged. C E LYTLE

VENANGO COUNTY, ss

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a correct transcript of the proceedings had before me in above case, with all the papers thereto pertaining

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, at Franklin, in the County aforesaid, the 23d day of February, A. D 1869

[SEAL.] C. E. LYTLE, Justice of the Peace

Mr James McKenzie, of Corry, who was the officer who effected the arrest of Mr Pierce, has also called upon us and signed a written statement of his connection with this unfortunate case, but it is hardly worth while to publish more than the substance of his story. He informs us that he was employed as a detective in this robbery case by Mr Benninghoff, and that his suspicions were directed against Mr Pierce by the declarations of one John C Gorman, of Centreville, that Pierce had confessed to him that he had put up the job of robbing Benninghoff, and that he was going to have a share of the miser's money Mr McKenzie also says that one Perkins told him that he had seen Pierce at Gowanda, Cattaraugus county, N Y, that he opened a trunk in his presence and showed him a roll of money two feet long, and that he was lavishing it about very liberally soon after the robbery How McKenzie could have attached any credit to statements of this character is very strange Men who commit or meditate crimes are not apt to be very communicative on the subject, either before or afterwards But Shoppert was another informant He told McKenzie that Jim Saeger said that Pierce was connected with the robbery Shoppert owned he had never seen Pierce himself and Shoppert is, so far, the only man who has been convicted as a particeps criminis in the robbery Mr McKenzie "went for" Pierce, after consultation with his employers, and found that he was practising law at Pleasant Hill, Cass Co, Missouri McKenzie could not discover that Pierce had a superabundance of ol means he and his wife were housekeeping, Pierce had no property, and had borrowed money to buy his library and pay his rent, Mr Pierce expressed himself perfectly willing to come on with the officer and meet his accusers face to face As we said in the outset the Benninghoff family are perfectly satisfied that he was not one of the robbers, and no witness or evidence being adduced against him he was released from custody and discharged Mr Pierce has commenced suits in trespass vi et armis against the Benninghoffs laying his damages at $20,000, against McKenzie Gorman and several others more or less connected in inciting and procuring his arrest on this charge, and they in turn become the defendants and he the prosecutor Mr. Pierce authorizes us to say, in order that the public may understand the motive of his accuser John C Gorman, that his first acquaintance with that person was in his being employed to prosecute him for Bigamy, before C M'Boush, of Meadville that he also prosecuted him at the instance of Sheriff Peck, and he was bound over to the Court of Quarter Sessions To this Mr Pierce attributes the hostility But the statements are too ridiculous and ridiculous, and so little deserving of a formal credence that we believe their was more mischief than malice in it We are extremly sorry for Mr Pierce, and cheerfully publish this vindication of his innocence from one of the most injurious aspersions which could rest upon man's character We trust he may sustain no further damage from a report so criminating, and that he may be awarded the full satisfaction for the injury already inflicted

The Paraguay Troubles.

The latest reports from the scene of war in Paraguay represents the Dictator Lopez as so hard pressed by the allied armies that he had abandoned his last ditch defensive position, and all the remnant of his army to fight or surrender as it saw fit and the commanders took the easiest way out and surrendered Before his flight Lopez issued a pretentious address, in which he claimed to have undertaken the war for patriotic motives and for the sake of the independence of his country, menaced by the combined forces of the Argentine Confederation — But he has failed to sustain himself, and retires from the contest It cannot be denied that he has shown great pluck and persistance in conducting the defence of his country during the protracted war and his people have shown themselves worthy of success, by the sacrifices they have made their endurance of hardships, and their bravery in sustaining a contest against great odds It is not easy to understand the real merits of the contest or to know what the Allies will do with Paraguay when they get it Our South American cousins are less known to us than the Mexicans who are unrelated to us by blood or sympathy

The two attaches of the Washburne legation in Paraguay, relate terrible stories of the indignities put upon them by Lopez who shut them up because they were accused of complicity in conspiring against him—a collusive intermedding which they do not deny These men also represent that Lopez is a very bad man, morally, and his habits to those of the Grand Turk and Brigham Young, while his treatment of those about him is as Turkish as a cruel nature could make it There is probably a good deal of truth in this and Messrs Bliss and Masterman have probably thought it incumbent upon them to undertake the subversion of a government administered by such a man—in which they made a very serious mistake

The Chicago Tribune is wisely preparing the minds of Western farmers and present holders of wheat in store for low prices the coming season It shows them that in London and Liverpool the price of wheat, low as it has ruled for the past eight or nine months, is again falling, owing to the arrival of large fleets of grain laden vessels from the Orient regions Odessa is pouring in wheat, and the neighboring ports are sending forth their grain in numerous vessels while the news comes that California has a very large surplus crop, which she must export, and promises to do greater things next season The chances generally are against a scant crop at the next harvest "The weather of the present Winter," says the Tribune, "has been peculiarly favorable to Spring sowing, and the indications are that the greater portion of the next crop will be sown in March which is generally looked on as insuring a bounteous yield The only kind of wheat likely to be injured by the weather is that sown in the Fall But the proportion of Winter wheat is now very small, and grows smaller each year Not a bushel of Winter wheat has been sold in our market for the past three months, and flour made therefrom is a drug with our dealers The manufacture of Spring flour has been so much improved within the past two or three years that it answers every requirement

On this state of facts holders are advised to look their losses in the face as gracefully as may be, and decide to let go, lest the chance of selling be denied in toto

THE Tickets for Rev A A Willett's lecture, Thursday evening next, March 4th, are now on sale at Hurd's Call to day and secure your seats The lecture promises to be one of the most entertaining of the season

A Wilmington newspaper advocates the formation of a new State out of Delaware and the Eastern Shore counties of Maryland.

Hon. Mr. Rose left Ottawa, Canada, for Washington, D. C, on Monday, to attend a meeting, as British Commissioner, on the boundary question, between the United States and England

The municipal election in Georgetown, D C, resulted in the triumph of the Democratic candidate for Mayor, Henry M Sweeney, by a majority of 37, over Charles H Craigin, Republican The whole vote cast was 2,041.

Gov. Haight, of California, has received an invitation to meet the Governors of the other States in Chicago, on the 4th of July, to celebrate the opening of the Pacific Railroad He will probably decline on account of official duties

Gov Geary, of Pennsylvania, concludes a sharp veto of a proposed supplement to a former law, which, he says, never became a law, with the following: "This strikes me as a burlesque on legislation now continued for over eight years, and it is submitted whether it be not about time it was stopped."

Two or three years ago (says the Tribune) the Democrats of New Hampshire talked of nominating Gen Bebel as a candidate for Governor, which astonished that gentleman to such a degree that he went home one day and sat for two hours in deep thought. His wife remarking his meditative state, inquired what ailed him "Well," said he, after a pause, "there is some talk of nominating me for Governor"

BY

GEO. M. MOWBRAY,

Superintendent of Blasting Nitro-Glycerine at the Hoosac Tunnel, Massachusetts.

[COPY]

ORTE ADAMS, MASS., Feb 17 1868.

Geo M Mowbray, Esq.,

DEAR SIR—It is the wish of the Commissioners that you take on its control of the blasting, while introducing Nitro-glycerine. They wish you to be responsible, that no accidents may happen.

Please give such orders, as you deem best in regard to it. I have notified C A Brown to receive all instructions from you and to report to you. I shall give no orders nor advice to him but leave him fully under your control Yours very truly

W P GRANGER, Engineer in charge

The terrible loss of life which had invariably attended the introduction of Nitro glycerine, probably suggested the above communication, and the fact that no injury to life or limb occurred with Nitro glycerine, during the past year at the Hoosac Tunnel, although we blasted over two thousand charges a month, is the best guarantee I can offer to proprietors of oil wells who may wish this explosive tried in their wells I shall spare no pains, care, or outlay, to attain the best results and I having erected works on Church Run which have to day been tested and found to make Nitro glycerine more powerful than any produced by other parties, or imported, is safe to handle, and having the advantage of witnessing its effects in rock blasting, I hope to deserve the confidence of well operators, pledging myself that the full charge stipulated for shall in every case be exploded in their wells or no payment will be asked Address by mail or telegraph

COL. E. A. ROBERTS,

General Superintendent Titusville Pennsylvania

OFFICE AT THE RED PLANING MILL

Heretofore we have in our circulars, alluded to a series of experiments being made with Nitro Glycerine and other explosives. We now announce that we have succeeded, even beyond our most sanguine expectations as regards the safety of handling also the unprecedented force and power manifested by a skillful combination whereby the size of the Torpedo is lessened and the force many times multiplied and are now prepared to operate on wells with any of the above named explosives—either with our improved combination or our old Combination Torpedo, which has a record of ability too well known to need mention here

8-lb. Nitro Glycerine, equal to 64 lbs. powder	$150
16-lb " " 128 lbs. powder	200
Combination equal to 100 lbs. powder	150
Improved combination, eq to 160 lbs. powder	200
Double combination, equal to 200 to 1000 lbs powder	$300 to 500

CAUTION—The public is cautioned against employing any but the regularly authorized agents of this Company, since their patent, according to the recent decision of the Commissioner of Patents for the United States, covers the use of the Torpedo and all other explosive materials for oil wells, and the use of such materials by other parties is a direct infringement of their rights, and we shall hold land or working interests to a strict accountability for such infringements.

RUE'S PATENT INJECTOR

FOR

BOILERS

The undersigned has the exclusive agency for selling RUE'S PATENT INJECTOR for Northwestern Pennsylvania. By the use of this ingenious appliance, the necessity of a heater and pump is obviated, as it will heat and inject into a boiler 5 to twenty five gallons of water per minute according to the size of injector used It can be connected without difficulty and will not get out of order It can be seen in operation at Bryan, Dillingham & Co.'s Shops in this city, and at the Monitor Oil Works, Petroleum Centre

T McCAMBRIDGE, Esq — DEAR SIR —We have one of Samuel Rue & Co's patent injectors in use in our establishment for the last six months, and we take pleasure in saying that it gives entire satisfaction, and would recommend it to all parties It is simple in its construction and its working is as easily understood as the common force pump, it never gets out of order and is always ready to pour water into the boiler when required

MR McCAMBRIDGE—DEAR SIR—We have used, and are still using, your patent steam injector with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect and simple we know of, and would not be without one under any circumstances

Yours truly, M L. BATES & Co.

TO OIL OPERATORS.

I have invented a new and useful instrument for

Searching and Scraping

the walls in Oil Wells, removing the Paraffine or other substance from the sides of wells, and indicating the locality of any Crevice, be it ever so small This has been used in a number of Wells, and all who have seen its workings pronounce it to be far preferable to anything now in use, as it will make the same record in coming up as when lowered into the well, and the same the second time as the first, and will not indicate a Crevice for every Spall that may have been broken out of the rock when the well was being drilled, and thus lead the well owners to Explode Torpedoes or Tube their wells in the wrong place and occasioning a great expenditure of time and money without any beneficial results.

I will guarantee to all who may favor me with their Custom, that they will be satisfied that the record furnished them of their wells is correct and reliable.

All orders directed to me at Titusville, Box 550, or left at my residence on Church Run will be promptly attended to. ELIAS BEACH

NOTICE.

On and after February 1st, the rates from all points through the pipes of the Allegheny Transportation Co.

will be

ADVANCED TEN CENTS PER BARREL

This advance is occasioned by the high price of oil, which makes the unavoidable loss attending the transmission of oil through pipes a large percentage of the present freight. Should oil decline in price materially the rate will be again reduced, and it is hoped that our patrons will treat us with the same liberality as heretofore AI LEGHENY TRANSPORTATION CO,
